OPEN ARTS JOURNAL

open and diverse arts scholarship

Responding to the urgent need for a rigorously compiled, peer-reviewed and original 'open access' journal we are pleased to present the Open Arts Journal.

Our dissemination is global and open, spanning diverse cultural and academic discipline communities, including curators, practitioners of art, architecture and design.

We emphasise innovation, through a broad base in the arts and bespoke digital design.

Each edition of the journal engages with a key theme, issue or critical debate and undergoes in-depth peer review.

We warmly welcome proposals. Please email Arts-open-arts-journal@open.ac.uk
